EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY POLICY

LONDON TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT NETWORK
(LTEN)

Last updated	January 2021
--------------	--------------

INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. This document sets out the Equality and Diversity Policy of LTEN. It explains why equality and diversity are important to us, the basic principles we will follow, our equality and diversity policy and how we intend to implement, monitor, and review it. This policy is to be read in conjunction with LTEN's Equal Opportunities Statement and Disability Policy.
- 1.2. The Equality and Diversity Policy covers both the work we do with our clients and the procedures that govern projects that we manage on behalf of our delivery partners. Throughout this policy the term 'staff' applies to paid staff, trainees on work placement, interpreters, volunteers, and the members of the Board of Trustees/Directors of LTEN and our partner organisations.
- 1.3. This Policy sets out how LTEN intends to meet its obligations under the following legislation:
 - The Equality Act 2010
- 2.1. LTEN and its partners provide services mainly to disadvantaged people from diverse communities and believe that all our clients should be treated with understanding and respect. Our clients have the right to both appropriate access to our services and equitable treatment by our staff.
- 2.2. At the heart of what we do is the recognition of the oppression many of our clients face in particular asylum seekers and refugees because of their race, ethnic origin, religion or belief, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion, and a commitment to combating it. We live and work in a society where racism forms part of the daily experience of black people and people from minority ethnic groups. For women, gay men and lesbians, bisexuals, transgender, older people and people with disabilities, these equality and diversity issues are also particularly acute.
- 2.3. This policy is an important public statement of LTEN's intent so that our staff and users can be clear about their rights and responsibilities and so that there are clear criteria against which our performance can be judged. However, we recognise that the creation of a genuine equality and diversity culture is a continuous process. We must strive constantly to achieve it.

KEY PRINCIPLES

- 3.1 Equality and diversity are an integral part of LTEN and partner organisations' objects, beliefs, and strategic objectives.
- 3.2 LTEN and its partners will uphold equality and diversity:
 - (a) in service delivery, by providing appropriate, sensitive and impartial services and being accessible to all especially, those from communities that suffer particular disadvantage in accessing training and work;
 - (b) by fostering a co-operative working environment which is free from harassment or victimisation and which promotes good relations among partners, to create the conditions for the partnership to realise its full potential;
 - (c) by employing and providing opportunities for disadvantaged groups in particular refugees and other ethnic minorities and in so doing develop a multi-cultural partnership which reflects the diversity of our clients and society;
 - (d) by promoting the values contained in the Policy in our relationships with other Partnerships and organisations.
 - (e) in employment, by ensuring that no job applicant, employee, volunteer or trainee is unfairly discriminated against on the basis of their gender, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, age, physical or mental capabilities, marital status, sexual preference, social background, or organisation role
